Placement Cell

Information:

About Training & Placement Cell Training and placement, the cell is an integral part of our institute and has provided complete infrastructure for the effective functioning of the employability training and placement activities. Training activities are organized throughout the year in an effort towards preparing the prospective students for the campus selection programs. The cell plays a vital role in bringing the students and industrial community together for a mutually satisfying employment relationship. It plays a very important and key role in counseling and guiding the students of the college for their successful career placement, which is a crucial interface between the stages of completion of the academic program of the students and their entry into suitable employment. The cell is also actively involved in developing contemporary technical and soft skills among the students.

What does it do?

Career Resource centers or Placement Cells in some colleges are the support providers which shape the students to a brighter future. Some of the greatest responsibilities of the college are embedded in the functioning of this department.

Goal:

Overall development of the TP Cell, as a single window nodal point for career counseling and higher learning of the students in relevant fields.
